A WORD FROM OUR FOUNDER

Welcome to our quarterly newsletter. As we continue to grow and evolve, we're excited to share the latest updates, insights, and achievements from our law firm. This edition includes highlights of new clients joining our portfolio, a glowing testimonial from a valued client, introductions to our newest team members, and a peek into our recent activities and events. We hope you enjoy reading and stay connected with us as we strive to provide exceptional legal services and innovative solutions.

Warm regards,
David

WELCOMING OUR NEW CLIENTS

We are proud to have Blockchains, Tillo.io, and LocalArenaTix join our esteemed roster of clients.

"Working with David and his team at Providentia for the past year has been fantastic. In contrast to the traditional outside counsel engagement model, Providentia is a firm fundamentally focused on solving the problems of an in-house team. They do this by spending time getting to know what support is needed rather than just asking how much budget you have. From this base of deep understanding, they work with you to craft real, scalable solutions that build on the work your team is already doing to make both your team and your clients successful. For Taskrabbit, this has included developing bespoke support models for commercial and compliance needs that have allowed our team to more effectively focus on issues core to our business. This flexibility, care and innovative spirit makes you feel like a partner and not just a client."

Ben Edelhart, General Counsel & Chief Administrative Officer | Taskrabbit

OUT AND ABOUT

Our local team enjoyed a fantastic day out in Los Altos, strengthening our bonds and unwinding together. Meanwhile, David attended some great industry events, including IPBC Global, the world's foremost gathering of senior thought leaders and decision-makers in the global IP market, David engaged with other industry leaders to discuss the future of intellectual property. Additionally, we were delighted to join Tradespace for their webinar "Concrete Tools for Attorney Mental Health," where David shared valuable insights on mental wellness in the legal profession. He emphasised the importance of managing perfectionism by understanding client or colleague expectations, maintaining clear communication, and delivering high-quality work.

WELCOMING OUR NEW ATTORNEYS

We are thrilled to welcome our newest team members to Providentia. With their extensive experience in the tech industry and a shared commitment to excellence, they bring valuable skills and fresh perspectives to our firm. Join us in welcoming Jose, Blessed and Shawn to the team. Their expertise will be instrumental as we continue to innovate and deliver top-tier legal services to our clients.
